A MECTINO of Anarchists was held in New York City a few nights ago, at which threats were made openly to assassinate the Mayor of that city, the Governor of that state, or the President of the United States, in the event that either of them should interfere with "free speech." By free speech the speaker meant the right to publicly denounce the chosen rulers over the people and to plan for their assassination. and for the murderous Fliptinos.

A NEW phase of the doctrine of the "consent of the governed" is mildigitating the pupils of one of the schools of Elkhart, Ind.

Recently a class in the room took up the study of civil government, and one of the boys thought it would be appropriate to adorn the walls with portraits of President McKinley and they record the pictures and donated then the room, and they were hung accordingly.

A Democratic member of the Board noticed the pictures when he visited see shool, and diplomatically informed the Principal, who teaches in another room, that insomuch as "there had been complaint" at this display of partisanism it would be best to request the teacher to remove the pictures.

The Principal conveyed the message to the teacher, who was considerably surprised at such a suggestion, as the pictures had been long line of Democratic ancestors and naturally entertaining pro-Democratic opinions. She decided to leave the matter to the pupils themselves. She first asked all Republican pupils to stand, and all Republican pupils of stand, and all republicant pupils of stand pupils of stand, and all republicant pupils of stand, and all r

Canal Dover, O. Dec. 14—Four masked men held the town of Shanesville, four miles west of here, at bay early Thursday morning while they robbed the private bank of John Doerschuck, blowing open the safe with a heavy charge of nitroglycerine and then made their escape with the town on a Wheeling & Lake Erie handcar, carrying with them between $3,000 and $4,000. The robbers were followed by a fusiliade of builets, and they are being traced now by a trail of blood. The conditions surrounded to blood. The conditions surrounded at Seville a few days ago, and the belief is general that the same men did the work.

Fixed on the Thieves.

An explosion awakened those who live in the vicinity of the bank about 3 o'clock Thursday morning. John way, bastened to a window when he saw two men working hurielly inside the bank. In front were two others standing guard. Rhodes uressed and ran down into the street, revolver in hand, to be met by a volley from the guards. The battle continued until he had emptied his wayne, abstened he retired to the house. He believes he shattered the arm of one of the men. Miss Mary Knowles, a relative of Banker Doerscheck, was also awakened and threw up a window and sereamed, when a builet struck into the wood near her head, the disappeared at once.

New Orleans, Dec. 14.—The south-bound Illinois Central fast mail, due her at 7:15 p. m., was held up and robbed by a lone train robber about one mile above the upper limits of the city Thursday night. Though some of the train crew say they saw bushes, only one man figured in the action, and his booty consists of one registered mail pouch from Durant, Miss., and six other registered letters from points between Cairo and New Orleans. Conductor Kinnebrew was shot in the groin, and J. C. Parker, railway mail clerk, had his left call has head. The robber got on the train, it is supposed, at some point above the city, and after passing Kenner, the last stop before the train arrives in New Orleans, he climbed over to the engine and covered the engineer and fireman and brought the train to a standstill.
